

Curriculum

Miquel Alabern Comas

Independent director

He began working as a director for MoraBanc in 2022. He is a member of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee and chairs the Risk Committee. He is also non-executive chairman of the board of directors of Mora Assegurances, SAU.

Miquel Alabern has a long-standing track record in the world of finance and at Banc Sabadell, where he held senior posts both at its branches and as the marketing director for different regions. He joined BancSabadell d'Andorra at the time the new bank was incorporated as its General Managing Director until 2012, when he was appointed as its CEO. Since 2019, until the merger with MoraBanc in 2022, he occupied the post of Chairman.

With an educational background in economics, finance, tax, human relations and communications, Miquel Alabern also holds a Master's Degree in Economics and Financial Management from the ESADE business school.

